PHAT CAT SWINGER THE VEGAS MIXTAPE 2027

Friday, March 12, 2027 at 8:00 pm
$25.00 Residents • $31.00 Non-Residents

If Bruno Mars and Frank Sinatra made a band - it'd look and sound like Phat Cat Swinger.

Phat Cat Swinger specializes in high-energy music with that classic Hollywood touch. What sets them apart is the showmanship, movement, and creative takes on swing classics. The band can often be experienced on The Disneyland Resort stages, presenting re-imagined Disney songs and originals in the iconic Phat Cat sound.

Hollywood loves Phat Cat Swinger and features them in videos with Christina Aguilera and The Jonas Brothers. They appear at A-List shindigs, like the Playboy Mansion, and JJ Abrams invited them to perform for his company, Bad Robot Productions.

Their end of show salute, "Together...we are...Phat Cat Swinger!" means that they are a band in every sense of the word - every cat on stage shines. And although led by founder Marco Palos and American Idol Runner-up Blake Lewis, the team all play off of one another and the audience to create an authentic one-of-a-kind experience - one that blows the roof off the place.

The Music of Billy Joel and Elton John feature the greatest hits of these two great rock piano legends. Songs include "Piano Man", "Rocket Man", "Bennie and the Jets", "Movin' Out", "I'm Still Standing", "My Life", and many more.

Pollstar, one of the leading websites about the touring music industry, ranked this show in the Top 50 touring Acts/Shows in the last two years.

The concert features Michael Cavanaugh, who was handpicked by Billy Joel himself to star in the Broadway musical "Movin' Out". Described by Billboard as "The New Voice of the American Rock and Roll Songbook," Cavanaugh brings a deep familiarity with the music and a dazzling, high-energy performance. He formed his first band at age 10 and began performing in local venues throughout his youth. After a long-running engagement at a piano bar in Orlando, Florida, Cavanaugh was invited to perform in Las Vegas, where a chance encounter with Billy Joel in 2001 changed the trajectory of his career. Joel joined him on stage, and within two songs, decided to cast him in "Movin' Out". Cavanaugh soon moved to New York City to help develop the show alongside Joel. Over the course of three years and more than 1,200 performances, he earned widespread recognition and received both Tony and Grammy Award nominations for the role. Broadway World referred to Cavanaugh as "The New Piano Man", and Reuters named Cavanaugh "Entertainer of the Year".
